

I am writing to express my concern at LPFM stations may take priority over FM translator services, effectively forcing a station I listen to regularly, K-LOVE off the air.

K-LOVE provides positive, uplifting messages that benefit individuals and families.

It is hard enough to find family-friendly radio, please do not make it harder.

The messages of K-LOVE change lives, and gives people hope. We all need that.

Thank you for your consideration.